Angelo, aka Bob Creo, is an attorney specializing in dispute resolution. He is the founder and principal of Steel City Storytellers, LLC. Angelo tells stories about his own life experiences— the wacky, the weird, and the wonderful. He started Steel City Storytellers to provide a forum for the spoken word in the Pittsburgh region as a platform to share stories.

A storyteller from an early age, staci b's artistic journey began when she left the corporate world in 1998 to become a writer. Her love of telling tales spans novels, short stories, creative non-fiction, poetry and plays, as well as performing as a storyteller. Connect with her on Instagram at heyitsmestacib.

Edward Bates is a Pittsburgh-based writer, actor and storyteller who has appeared on stage in a variety of roles, including Othello in Shakespeare's Othello and on film as Red in The Shawshank Redemption and Chief Bromden in One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest. Watch for his short story series YouTube channel coming this fall and his book, Tin Man, based on a true Pittsburgh due out in 2023.

Barbara Griffin is an attorney and director of a free legal aid program that helps people with very low incomes. She's back home in Pittsburgh after living many years in Washington D.C. and Austin, Texas, and recently became an empty nester when the youngest of her three children went off to college. When not fighting for the underdog, Barbara enjoys hiking, scrapbooking, and watching college basketball.

Jus Janell has been performing stand-up comedy since 2017. She opened her own comedy club in Swissvale called the Giggles & Grub Club - the Only Pop-Up Comedy club in Pittsburgh! She has traveled to other cities to perform stand up, including New York and Detroit. Janell loves to perform magic and has her line of eyewear called Jus Shades. She's married with two adult children and two very precious granddaughters!

Storytelling is live performance, so we ask that you remain seated and silent during the telling of the story.
